Washington.—The United States has never liked the Anglo-Japanese alliance.
Republican and democratic administrations alike have felt that alliances only led to disastrous misunderstandings. Europe has revealed that the mischief which a system of alliances develops. The formation of an alliance in central Europe between Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy has assumed an attitude toward China wherein American, French, British, German and Russian interests were likely to be permanently injured. Of course, for the moment, Germany and Russia are out of it but essentially it is the grouping of Europe and America on the one hand and Japan on the other. Would Japan stand by her European friends and bring Japan within the circle of international concord and compel her military leaders to refrain from acts of equality with other nations? Would Japan pledge herself to help restore the sovereignty of China which has become the outpost of nations?

The crisis came at the time the dominant powers were in session.
The British government didn't want to offend Japan by publicly refusing to renew the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

Charge Oshkosh Police Easy on Booze Traffic

Milwaukee.—During the liquor hearing in federal court, a charge that liquor was being sold in Oshkosh with little interference from the police was made by William O. Mehlman, assistant United States district attorney. The accusation was made on the case of Arthur Gabbert, Jr., son of the assistant chief of police of Oshkosh, who pleaded guilty to the possession of whiskey and was fined $200.

Replying to Mr. Mehlman, John F.
Kluwin, attorney for Mr. Gabbert, said:
"If prohibition officials did not go to the newspapers so much and make accusations regarding conditions as to liquor, conditions would be better."
Gabbert was indicted on two counts, one charging possession of whiskey and the other sale. This count charging sale was nullified at the request of Mr. Mehlman.

Explaining the case to Judge Gerner, Mr. Kluwin said Mr. Gabbert's father and superior suited to meet by the Oshkosh police on a saloon conducted by George Dieckhoff, and that the accusations against Mr. Gabbert resulted from a plot to get even.

N-P League, Beaten by Dakota Farmers, Plans Badger Fight

(By Associated Press.)
Madison.—The Nonpartisan league in Wisconsin will continue its efforts toward expansion throughout this state, despite the action of the people of North Dakota in recalling the league Governor, L. J. Prazier, and electing an opposition candidate in his stead. Chester C. Platt, editor of the Nonpartisan and spokesman for the organization, said today.
North Dakota's action he attributes largely to the failure of farm women to vote while their city opponents went in force to the polls. The league, he says, has had so many hard battles to fight, and so little money with which to fight them, that a defeat was not unexpected.

In Wisconsin, organization work is declared to be going on and preparations made for the convention, probably to be held in Madison next June, when the political affiliations of the Wisconsin league will be determined.

tee on resolutions, castigating Col. George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain, and declaring him unfit to hold office in the American government.
The vote to table was 576 to 444,
with 50 not voting.

After the original Harvey resolution had been tabled, a substitute Harvey resolution, couched in less caustic terms, was adopted by unanimous vote.

Convention Hall, Kansas City, Mo.—
The national convention of the American Legion, in final session here, passed through a quantity of routine business Wednesday morning and cleared the way for consideration of the report of the committee on resolutions and the election of officers.
The outstanding features on the concluding program were:

Amid cheers, the big assembly adopted the report of its legislative committee, reaffirming the legion's stance on the question of immediate federal compensation for service men and asking that such action be taken "without further equivocation or delay."

A resolution castigating Col. George W. Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain for a speech made soon after his arrival in England and in which he discussed American reasons for entering the war was included in the resolutions committee's report. The resolution was greeted with cheers and applause.

The convention also adopted a report of the Americanization comjects, including more efficient regulation of radical activities. Recommendations also were made as to the restriction of immigration. Many of the clauses in the Americanization committee's report will be incorporated in tee, it was announced from the floor.

One clause, urging that clemency be

She was chosen from a large number senate for the sales tax Chairman Fordney and Representative Greer Iowa, and Representative Longworth, Ohio, of the house ways and means committee, informed senate leaders Wednesday that under no circumstances would the house accept a sales tax at this time.

A further poll of republican senators Wednesday was said,
by majority leaders to have shown thirty favoring incorporation of a sales tax in the revenue revision bill, twelve opposed and twelve doubtful. This left six republicans absent or not polled.

NATION FAILING IN CARE OF CHILDREN

Former Kansas City Mayor
Sounds Keynote of a Better Tomorrow.

"The crying need of the times is an intelligently educated, patriotic and God fearing citizenry. America and the best way to create it is through the boys and girls."

So declared Darius A. Brown, former mayor of Kansas City in a resounding address at the weekly Rotary meeting held at the Grand hotel at noon Wednesday. He spoke in the interest of Mooseheart, the home of 1850 orphaned boys and girls.

At a time when many people are wondering if the United States experiment in democracy is not a failure, and when others are plotting against the country, he said, every man and woman of America must pause and consider with a blush of shame that the nation is failing to properly instruct and care for its children.

"Children are neglected."
"In our American scheme of government we have had a Department of Agriculture for many years, but we have not had a department for the care of dependent boyhood and girlhood of the country. We have a department for our hogs and cattle but not for our boys and girls. The boy is the keystone in the arch of American citizenship. Our boys and girls are the men and women who will make the republic of tomorrow. . . .
We must make our country safe for democracy by developing our boyhood and girlhood."

Pointing out that the children are being neglected, he stated that the first element of neglect is the failure to come through perfecting their health, keeping them happy, giving them at least a high school education, moral training and a sense of responsibility.

Lack of moral training, because the parents are either too cowardly or unable to tell the truth, is the cause of a large part of the immorality of today. He said that children must be instructed in sex hygiene, he urged, and told the consequences of living clean.

"Religious teaching, he believes, is just as important."

"Most people today are too engrossed in selfishness, ease and vice," Mr. Brown asserted. "One of the greatest needs of the country is the people drifting from worship."
Go out any day of the week—especially Sunday—and you will find them packing the doors of places of amusement, and the streets empty except for the few who are trying to get into the hole of work."

Not least of all, he stressed the importance of improving upon the quality of the education of the children, the recollection of their father and mother, no matter what position either held in life.

Speaking of the high school at convention at 10 a. m., Mr. Brown stressed that but 10 per cent of the boys and girls of the United States have the privilege of attending high school and securing a diploma.

"Often wonder," said Mr. Brown,
"whether the majority of the boys and girls realize the extent of this privilege. Out of a total of 100,000,000 in a school where 1,000 boys and girls, because of losing their mother or father, or of other misfortunes would have been unable to have a high school education, he said, he thought of the boys and girls who they are in an institution located on a 100 acre farm. Were it not for this institution they would be tramping the streets."

One of the greatest things they are doing at Mooseheart," declared Mr. Brown, "is to find out what they are best fitted for in life. Each boy or girl passed through an experimental process of 28 trades, crafts or vocations, and so that by the time they have completed their education they know what they wish to be in life.
There are too many blacksmiths in this country, who had they been given the proper training, would have made good surgeons and physicians, and many lawyers who would have made charging good blacksmiths."

20,000 COAL MINE WORKERS GO OUT IN INDIANA FIELD

UNION HEADQUARTERS
REPORTS 300 MINES
HIT BY WALKOUT.

MORE EXPECTED
Widespread Strike in Soft Coal Fields of Country Is Forecast.

(By Associated Press.)
Indianapolis.—Work in the Indiana coal field was practically at a standstill Wednesday as a result of walkouts of twenty thousand men employed at approximately 200 mines in the state, according to early reports received at union headquarters at Terre Haute.

Widespread walkouts in the soft coal fields of the country were expected at international headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America. No reports, however, were available as to conditions in the sixteen states in which messages were sent Tuesday night, by the union chiefs advising that discontinuance by operators of the "check off" system as prescribed by Judge Anderson's injunction, was to be treated as breaking the existing wage agreement.

At the Terre Haute headquarters of the Indiana miners, it was said,
the only mines working Wednesday were a few of the smaller plants. No reports of work were being issued from the headquarters, but officials said, such was under consideration.

Protest against the temporary injunction issued by Judge Anderson, was voiced at numerous meetings held Tuesday night throughout the Indiana fields and officers of the union said there was little prospect of a resumption of work until the work was set aside or modified. Operators of the Indiana field, will meet Thursday night at Terre Haute to discuss the situation.

H. H. Henna, secretary of the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' association, in a statement Wednesday took issue with President Lewis and other union officials, as to the weather-obedience of the injunction would result in violation of a contract between miners and operators, asserting that the contract provided that in the event of a strike, the decisions of a federal court.

400 ILLINOIS MINERS

ers at the Marion County Coal com-reasons regarding the strike, and system and was told that the system would be continued until further orders.

Marks on the Way to the Bottom

New York.—German marks, which passed into this country at 23 1/2 cents before the war, Wednesday broke to a new low record, falling and still trading below a half of one cent after an early bid price of exactly one-half cent. Triding in marks was small, and chiefly speculating according to dealers, who ascribed the fluctuating collapse to Germany's enormous outpouring of paper money.

tondy, president of the local Red Cross chapter, stated that $2,500 is needed for the next year.

Legion Officer Tells D. A. R. of Armistice Day

"The most wonderful moment in all history was Armistice day as described by Ralph Kampa, before the monthly meeting of the local chapter of the D. A. R. Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church. He was in the suburbs of Paris, Nov. 11, 1918, and gave a vivid word picture of the scenes when guns, bells and sirens proclaimed the tidings of the end of the world war. Americans waved American flags, and shouted the good news."

"The fellows left behind in France were the real winners of the war," he declared. "While the service men are blamed sometimes for their attitude toward the Germans, those who saw their atrocities in Northern France can never forget or forgive their acts toward helpless women and children."

Mr. Kampa recapitulated briefly his march through Luxembourg and Coblenz and his joy in again viewing the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor.

Mrs. S. F. Richards sang a solo, "Somewhere in France," and also Kreisler's lullaby. Mrs. J. L. Wilcox played the accompaniments.

Mrs. Ada Sawie, the delegate to the state convention held Oct. 10 at Oshkosh gave a brief report of the meeting showing that the Plymouth fountain, the Americanization manual and the painting of the American soldiers given to the city of Paris, are the things put forward by the state organization.

WOULD TAX BEER TO AID SOLDIERS

Bill Would Legalize Light Liquors and 4 Percent Assessment.

(By Associated Press.) Washington—A bill to legalize and place a four per cent tax on beer and light wines, to be used in defraying the cost of the soldier bonus, has been drafted by Representative Erenn, republican, Michigan, and will be presented to congress, he announced Wednesday, as soon as the American Legion convention at Kansas City has closed on the bonus question.

Declaring that, for the last two years, "the revenue which rightfully should have flowed into the coffers of Uncle Sam, has been collected by bootleggers and rum runners," Representative Erenn predicted that, under the recent regulations permitting medicinal use of beer, "cessants" of it will be manufactured and sold for purposes other than "strictly medicinal."

"Many students of the prohibition question," he said, "predict that medicinal beer is only a forerunner to a return of beverage beer and light wines. If this be so, why should not the step be taken at once and the enormous revenue flowing from this source be applied to paying the soldier bonus. Extrapolating that from 50 to 70 million barrels of beer would be consumed annually, a tax of $5 to $20 a barrel would be sufficient, without including light wine revenues, to finance an adjusted compensation."

WORKS OF DICKENS VIVIDLY PORTRAYED IN IMPERSONATIONS

Characters of Charles Dickens were brought to life and spoke realistically in the program put on by William Sterling Battis at the Methodist church, Tuesday night in the lyceum course under the auspices of the Methodist Brotherhood.

Beginning with an impersonation of Dickens, reading an extract from Martin Chuzzlewit, which showed the author's philosophy of the man, through Dickens which portrayed the hypocrite, and bluff Capt. Cuttle an example of eccentricities personified he portrayed many different types. In the landlady, Mrs. Pecksniff, he showed remarkable qualities in taking the part of a woman, and in Micawber as an optimist, and Uriah Heep, the "umble", still other characteristics were shown. The horrible character of Bill Sikes was most realistic, and the cock rascal, Roger Ryder, was equally well portrayed.

A contrasting character study was that of Sam Weller and his frankness and vivacity of youth singing an old English song, and Nell's grandfather shown with the pathetic frailty of old age.

The climax was depicted in the closing number in the extracts words of Sydney Carton. Just before he ascended the guillotine to die for another in his love for a woman.

The make-up of the characters was given before the audience and was accompanied with a running commentary on the people portrayed, which formed the background of the scenes. The whole formed an artistic educational performance, given by a man who has devoted his life to the study of Dickens.

Up to this week none of the sections had been laid, the work up to that time having been of the monolithic kind, or some solid pipe.

Workers are rebuilding a portion of the old flume under the south approach to the bridge, one wall of which caved in recently. The new wall will strengthen the bridge approach including the sidewalk supports.

This city is making a careful inspection of the $100,000 sewer job and is watching closely to see that the proper grade is reached for a fall of only three-fourths of an inch per 100 feet. The section from Monterey bridge along the railroad right-of-way to Eastern avenue must be completed before the contractors will be allowed to tear up Eastern avenue east to Beloit avenue. Assistant City Engineer Joseph Lustig said Wednesday. It is not planned to finish the project until 1922.

Your state of health largely depends upon the food you eat

No one who is physically ailing in any way can afford to take chances with the food he eats. For upon the selection of your food, and upon its perfect digestion and assimilation largely depends your state of health.

The most important thing in connection with the digestibility of any cereal food is the way it is prepared—and the length of time it is cooked or baked.

Grape-Nuts, the rich cereal food made from whole wheat flour and malted barley, is probably baked longer than any other cereal food.

A large part of the starch of the wheat and barley is changed into dextrin and grape-sugar in preparing Grape-Nuts. This is one reason why Grape-Nuts is so easily digested by even the most delicate people.

Grape-Nuts is wheat and barley so processed as to make it delicious and appetizing; even young children thrive on it and grow strong and rosy.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it as a cereal with milk or cream, or make it into a delicious pudding. It will be enjoyed and relished by every member of the family.

BIG DECREASE IN INSANITY IS SEEN

Prohibition Given as Cause for Decline in Rock County.

One more argument for prohibition—the report made for the Rock county court, which was submitted to county board authorities, Wednesday for consideration by the committee. There have been fewer insane and feeble minded people committed to the state institutions on the order of the court so far in 1921 than in any other recent years.

In 1918 there were 47 committed as insane, with eight feeble minded and 22 tubercular cases. In 1919 there were 54 insane cases, seven feeble minded and 18 tubercular. In 1920, 48 insane, including a number of former servicemen afflicted with shell-shock, seven feeble minded and eight for tubercular.

This year up until November 1 there have been 32 committed as insane, the victims of the insanity orders were soldiers, two committed as being feeble minded.

"There is no practical reason other than prohibition for the reduction of insane cases," it was declared. "During the last two years that have been many war victims or the number would be further decreased."

DEVIL NEVER GOES WHERE HE ISN'T WANTED—SNYDER

"The devil is a roaring lion but he is a gentleman in that he never goes where he is not wanted," Evangelist D. Emmett Snyder declared, Tuesday night in his sermon on "Why Doesn't God Kill the Devil?" given as one of a series of talks at evangelistic meetings at the First Christian church.

"The devil is on the dance floor and in the card game. The only reason he exists is because people invite him instead of avoiding him. He is persistent."

Answering the question which formed his sermon theme, Evangelist Snyder stated that God has not the power to kill the devil nor the soul of man.

"If I had had, He would rather kill man than to see him spend eternity in hell," he continued. "Put the devil to flight—he will flee from you. Keep your mind working all the time in order that you may drive out the devil so he cannot work his propaganda in the Christian world. Our minds are lazy."

"The devil is a multitude of demons, the whole-works of evil. He has access to people and the only way to avoid him is to unite with Christ and crowd him out." Mr. Snyder sang a solo, "Because He Loved Me So."

"The Second Coming of Christ" is Mr. Snyder's theme for Wednesday night and a moving picture, "The Last Supper," will be shown. Thursday night he will talk on "The Greatest Profession in the World" and Friday night, that "I Would Do as Jesus Did." If I Were the Devil." Meetings begin at 7:30 p. m. with special music by a large choir. Rev. Leland L. Marion is hoping to have 500 present for Bible school day, Sunday.

Railroads Helping to Cripple U. S. Merchant Marine, Senator Charges

New York.—Foreign competition, "aided and abetted by Americans," was declared Wednesday by United States Senator J. E. Ransdell, Louisiana, in an address before the Advancing club of New York to be one of the "underlying causes that are crippling the development of the American merchant marine."

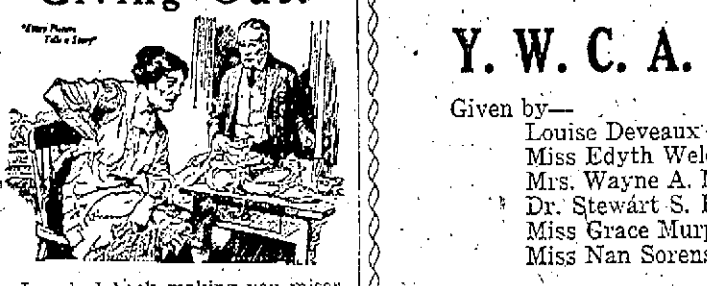

Nearly a score of American railroads, he said, "including some of the greatest systems, have fled with the interstate Commerce commission copies of contracts in which they agreed to use their best efforts to secure freight for foreign shipping companies, to the expulsion of others."

Senator Ransdell cited as examples contracts between the Pennsylvania system and Purills, Wilkey and company, a British corporation; between the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and the Cunard line.

Many Privileges
"Exclusive use of facilities is granted in many cases," the speaker said, "free wharfage and freight handling, is given, special arrangements are made for loading and unloading and many other privileges are accorded."

As a result of the operation of the various contracts, well over a million tons of freight are turned over annually by American railroads to foreign ships. The most amazing aspect of the situation, however, is that the railroads, supplied with funds from the United States treasury, have been utilizing their resources to build up the business and swell the profits of foreign competitors of the government's shipping.

Is Your Back Giving Out?

Is a bad back making you miserable? Are you tormented with a dull, wearing backache, and sharp, stabbing pains? It's time then, you look out to your kidneys. A cold, a strain, or even a flu, has probably weakened your kidneys and brought on that nagging backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and kidney irregularities. Don't wait for some serious trouble. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Your home folks recommend them. Ask your neighbor.

A Janesville Case
Mrs. I. J. Wheelock, 322 River St. said: "I had been painting the woodwork of my home and the fumes from the turpentine were so strong, my kidneys became disordered. My kidneys were inactive and caused an ailment. My back pained and I had severe headaches. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Badger Drug Co. and took them until every symptom of kidney trouble left."

CHINA CALLED TO ACCOUNT ON DEBT

Washington.—Attention of the Chinese government has been called, through Minister Schurman at Peking to meet its obligations in connection with payment of principal and semi-annual interest on the five and a half million dollar loan extended by the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings company of Chicago.

Payment of the loan and the last half year's interest was due Tuesday and Minister Schurman was directed by the state department to indicate to Chinese officials the feelings of the United States government that defaulting such obligations constituted serious failure of governmental stability.

It was said at the state department, no word had come from the minister or from the representatives of the bankers in Peking, indicating what arrangement, if any, had been made to meet the obligation.

It was also indicated that the de-

IRISH SETTLEMENT PLAN IS DRAFTED

Committee Now Discussing Details, Is Belief in London.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] London.—There was reason to believe Wednesday that a plan of settlement of the Irish question had been drafted and is being discussed in detail by the committee representing the government and the Irish delegates, which now is exercising the chief functions of the Irish conference.

Aside from the recent formal meetings of the committee and the conference as a whole, there have been more intimate explorations of the situation at private meetings at which representatives of each side, accompanied by mutual friends, have talked freely in conversations which are understood to have borne no official participants to any definite line of action.

PUBLIC INVITED TO "DRY" MASS MEETING

Mr. Kramer will be entertained at a luncheon at the Seventh Day Baptist church at Milton at noon Thursday and will arrive in Janesville Thursday afternoon to speak at an organization meeting at 2 p. m. and the mass meeting at night.

HIGH SCHOOL CLOSES FOR FOOTBALL GAME

Five hundred guests, many from Janesville, are expected to attend the banquet and dance Thursday night in the Women's Building. Janesville will be the Madison lodge of Knights of Pythias. LEGION WANTS DEBS TO REMAIN IN PRISON previous conventions and made no further suggestions. The use of English only in the country public schools was urged and it was asked that all teachers be required to take the oath of allegiance.

Better election laws were declared to be necessary.

Enlightenment for all slacks was demanded and the action of the legion officials in opposing the release from prison of persons convicted of wartime law offenses endorsed.

Trade Compensation. The resolution on compensation which was adopted read:

"Whereas, there is pending in congress a measure to provide adjusted compensation to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the great war; and

"Whereas, this adjusted compensation measure provides for the payment of the nation's just obligations to the service men and women for the financial and economic handicap, suffered by them incident to their service; and

"Whereas, the nation should be paying all of its other war debts and obligations; and

"Whereas, the obligation of the nation to its soldiers and sailors suffering from economic handicaps suffered by them because of their service, which economic handicap is at this time felt with special severity because of widespread general unemployment; and

"Whereas, after careful consideration of all the arguments advanced in opposition to the measure, including the letter of the secretary of the treasury and the address of the president to congress, we still firmly believe in the justice, fairness and immediate necessity of the adjusted compensation measure; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, that the American Legion, in national convention assembled, reaffirms its stand on adjusted compensation and asks the congress of the United States to pass this measure without further equivocation or delay.

Harvey Resolution.

The Harvey resolution reads: "Whereas, George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain, colonel in the army of the United States, a native-born citizen of the United States, has been in a recent public address to cast reflection on the actuality of the American people in entering the world war, by saying that they were controlled by fear and selfishness; and

"Whereas, such statements, even if true, would be peculiarly out of place as coming from the public spokesman for a great people, but being false and untrue, constitute a gross and malicious slander on the good name of the entire American people and particularly upon the memory of those who have given their lives for the sake of humanity, now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the American Legion, in convention assembled, that the words of George W. Harvey, at the Pilgrimage banquet, London, are a miserable calumny, worthy only of a little mind, dominated by envy and jealousy, and incapable of appreciating the higher ideals of life and therefore ascribing to others the only motives which it is able to understand; that we severally and collectively represent to the president of the United States that the said George W. Harvey, is unworthy to hold any office whatsoever; that the gift of the American people and that a public rebuke and an immediate recall would be punishment mild compared with the enormity of the offense; and that the national adjutant be instructed to send a copy of this resolution to the president of the United States."

Urges Arms Agreement. Resolutions urging a world agreement among nations on armaments, recommending the promotion of chemical industry within the United States as a step in preparedness and a recommendation that the allied property held in custody by the government be used to settle claims against Germany, were presented to the national convention of the American Legion here Wednesday. Fourteen resolutions came out of the convention committee of resolutions.

Among other recommendations which the committee approved and submitted to the convention was a demand that every effort be made to bring about the return to the United States of Grover C. Bergdall, American slacker.

Oppose Debs Release. Opposing to the release of Eugene V. Debs, serving a term in the Atlanta federal prison for violation of wartime laws, also was declared.

Deep regret over the untimely death of the late national commander, Col. Frederick W. Gulbraith, Jr., was voiced in one resolution and another contained a greeting to former President Wilson, expressing hope for his speedy and complete recovery. The points touched on in the other resolutions were:

Commending publication of slacker lists by the government.

Favoring memorialization of highways, streets and parks.

More reverential observance of Memorial day.

Pledging support to the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association.

Thanking the railroads of the country for granting reduced rates for the convention.

Appointment of a committee to bring about the expansion of the legion in foreign countries.

Arms Resolution.

The resolution on armaments read in part: "Whereas, delegates from the leading nations of the world have been invited by the president of the United States to meet to discuss the question relative to the formation of an international armament limitation agreement; and

"Whereas, the American Legion believes it is in the best interest of the people of the United States of America; and of the peoples of the world that an international armament limitation program be adopted; be it

"Resolved, that the American Legion, in national convention assembled, endorse the idea of international armament limitation."

ture of the convention of the American Legion.

Proceeded by the military band, the convention of the American Legion, the allied leaders rode at the head of the procession until the reviewing stand was reached. There they dropped out and took the place allotted them.

Marshal Foch and General Pershing arrived first. In their party was Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, the American flying ace. They were followed closely by Gen. Diaz and General Jacques, with Admiral Earl Beatty and Admiral Redman not far behind.

The officers had hardly time to salute themselves before they were compelled to salute the colors flying in front of motor cars bearing the thirty-five congressional medals of honor men and the parade had officially begun.

The parade delegations moved past in alphabetical order, with Alabama the leader. Almost three hours elapsed from the time the Alabama contingent swung past until the last of the Washington state post had received the salutes of its former commanders.

The Pike county, Mo., post led a pack of hounds. Fifteen of them were on one leash and stretched out were on the street. As the men approached the stand they fired a rifle salute and their hand struck up "You've Got to Quit Kickin' My Dog Around," a tune familiar to all Missourians.

CHAPTER LXIV.

I GO BACK

There were days and days to think over what Colin had said. He only spoke the truth, but this truth so often hurt. He only told me the things I should know, but the things I should know were not the things I wanted to hear.

However, I did try—though not as much as I should. But my music was no comfort. When I played the things I liked, they made me cry. I knew I was silly. I knew I was wrong—but I could not help it.

Colin came for a little while every day. We went for long walks in the afternoon occasionally, through the tantalizing warmth of the early spring sunshine.

"This is probably what you need," he remarked in a very practical fashion. "Fresh air and sun and exercise. The spring is a time to rebuild. It's a time of hope and rebirth—you ought to cheer up now."

I looked out over the Park. The trees were breaking out in tiny leaves of the loveliest, richest green, and the shrubs were full of blossoms. Children and nursemaids were on all the paths. Everything and everybody seemed glad to be alive—but myself, I alone made me more miserable.

"Let's go back," I said suddenly. "I'm so tired."

"You haven't walked a mile yet. You shouldn't tire out so easily." We turned back, and went to my apartment, where I made tea for us. "Nature doesn't seem to be a restorative," Colin remarked, watching me while I poured out the tea. "You're as white as a ghost and you've blue lines under your eyes. Perhaps you need sedation. There's a musical show opening tonight. Shall I get tickets?"

I assented, and we went to the theatre. When Colin came for me I had dressed in one of the prettiest gowns I had.

"I see you are to be frivolous tonight," he laughed. "Well, you look better than today at least."

But half way through the performance a late party came into one of the boxes—fortunately a box way across the house from the reflected glare of the footlights—Gwen, magnificent in a gown of a strange coral color, a man and woman new to me, and Winthrop.

I might have known he would be there, for Win went to all first nights. He felt he really belonged to the city when he learned the names of all the regulars, who never missed an opening performance—the mixture of critics, producers, actors, society people, would-be society people, and the vast fringes of each set.

Dinner Stories

A Midland golfer was accompanied round the links by a very shabbily dressed caddy. Neither was much to be feared, but the golfer, who was much better than the caddy, was very much to be feared. The golfer tried to express his gratitude. "Oh, that's all right," said the caddy.

"Oh, that's all right," said the caddy.

CAUSE OF THE HAIR. This does not mean that you should not have the hair softened by curling or fluffing it out, by keeping it loosely combed with a hairbrush, or by using nothing so harsh and ugly as tight drawn over the scalp. Plait the hair as usual, but spin it against the sides of the head.

First of all, give your hair the proper sort of shampoo. The first part of the treatment is to rub the scalp with hot cream oil, olive oil, or some other oil. Next day you do the shampooing. But before you shampoo braid the hair into many thin, tight braids, run your hand backwards over the hair, being in the ends and clip off all the ends, and a little from the bottom of the hair. This is an absolute cure for split ends. Then shampoo using some hair cream or four times, and rinse again and again until you have rinsed out every particle of soap.

When possible, dry the hair in the sun and massage the scalp gently after the hair is dry. Use a hair tonic.

The scalp should be shampooed once every three weeks, with the oil treatment the day before if the hair is poor in quality or if the hair is dandruff. Every other shampoo time—that is, every six weeks—braid the hair and clip the ends, as I have suggested above.

At night, when you take your hair down, massage it with the hair tonic every other day. I will gladly send you my formula for a splendid tonic if you will write for it.

Seventeen—As your face is full and your hair short, you should aim to get length of lines in the features. Do not bring the hair out much on the sides of the head as this will broaden the face, but bring it out much on the top of the head, and snug it well in over the temples and down over the tops of the head and keep it as close as possible over the top. Arrange the coil at the back, well toward the top and in the form of an oval.

J. K. M. mullage made from gum tragacanth or from quince seeds, will keep the hair in curl. The hair is made moist with this and the curls are formed or tied into shape while the hair dries. After which the hair is combed and the particles of dried gum shaken from the curls. It is more easily handled when making curls from short hair than when the hair is longer.

When she was gone from the room, Reed's eyes strayed to the pencil-marked paragraph and he was chuckling over it when she returned. "Gee, I wish I had thought of that," he exclaimed. "Isn't it a wonder?"

Corliss was not sure she had Tuesday evening open. "Let me humor myself by consulting my engagement book," she smiled.

Her Poet and Banker

One of the meanest class in the world, the people who write anonymous letters, are the fellows I have to sit the whole evening through without a dance or anything. Some of my girl friends tell me it is because I am decent, and others tell me it is because I have not enough charm. Please tell me what you think.

INTERESTED READER.

The best way to cultivate charm will be to watch other people. See what you consider graceful and beautiful in the people about you, and also observe what you consider awkward and ill-mannered. Then practice the beautiful and drop from your habits what you have seen to be ungraceful in others.

Follow fashion magazines closely and read articles about dress. Even if you have little money for clothes you will be able to buy more wisely and look more attractive if you have a better idea of what is correct. Neatness is the most important factor in dress. Never wear soiled clothing. Always brush your clothes, suit and wool dresses before wearing them. Also see that your shoes are polished and your gloves clean and mended. Bathe daily, keep your hair clean, well-trimmed, and neatly combed. If your hair is stringy and hard to keep in place, wear a hair net and have some one who wears a hat put it on so that your hair will not look flat and plain. Keep your hands clean and your nails manicured.

Probably you have a negative personality and find it easier to follow others than to make up your mind. You must get over such a habit in case I have judged you rightly. Think never said anything about a little newspaper joke I slipped into my envelope and sent you. Did you suspect your poet?

"You sent it?"

"I did. I thought if the saying had any wisdom in it, it would convince you you had the confidence necessary to marry a banker. I seem to have been right."

Heart and Home Problems

CITY'S NEW PUMP SAVES $13 DAILY

Requires Less Than 60 Pct. of Coal Used for Old Outfit, Records Show.

Janesville is saving on an average of $13 per day or close to $5,000 yearly by the operation of the new 8,000-gallon Murray pump at the city water plant as against the old 4,000-gallon outfit which is now used only in emergencies. The new pump is the first of its kind required to run the new pump.

These figures were given out Wednesday by Supt. H. A. Giffney after an inspection of the records for October. The new pump was operated exclusively all but one day during the past month requiring the consumption of an average of 8,000 pounds of coal daily. The old outfit was shut down 13.25 days and the new one shut down 13.25 days, the records show.

This difference is due to the unusually high efficiency of the new pump. In an official test a month ago it developed a mechanical efficiency of 94.5 percent which is considered remarkable by water department heads.

The new pump and equipment represents an outlay of about $20,000, said Mr. Giffney. "At the rate we are going in we are not only saving but are saving $1,000 a year besides."

The total pumpage during October was 64,837.75 gallons or a little more than 2,000,000 gallons per day, far below the consumption the past summer when some days ran above 2,500,000 gallons.

Training School Notes

The Philomathean Society will present a program Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock. It has been hoped that informal soundings might develop whether Japan would come into such a conference and then formal announcement could be made.

Gifts Packed to Press. But it didn't work out that way. Mr. Harding issued the call and gave the facts at once to the press. Japan might have been debating still whether to enter an international conference on Far Eastern questions if the discussion had been kept secret. With invitations issued to the major powers of the world, Japan could not afford to quibble and hesitate. She was compelled by world opinion to enter the conference.

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Lloyd George went out of his way to lead the "initiative" by President Harding and British said the same thing in the French parliament, all of which was designed to remove any suspicion that the British were trying to start a world party which would do away with the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

Yet that is the cold fact. Sooner or later Japan will realize that when America projected Far Eastern questions in the conference on limitation of armaments, that act sealed the doom of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. Canada and Australia had already run up stairs like a girl now. Mrs. Rees Says She Hasn't Had A Sign of Rheumatism For Two Months.

"I am now sixty-two years of age, but the way I get around to do my housework one wouldn't think I was that old by a good many years," said Mrs. Ella Rees, 171 South Wyoming Place, Milwaukee, Wis.

"Yes, sir, I praise Tanlac to everybody, and I certainly have a good reason for it, too. For three years I suffered terribly from rheumatism in my arms and shoulders, couldn't hold to the banisters and pull myself upstairs, and my back felt just like it would break in two. My housework was something I could not go, and I did not care to eat, and all during the day I felt like lying right down and going to sleep. "I saw in the paper one day where Tanlac had relieved someone who seemed to have a case just like mine, so I started taking it, and finished my sixth bottle some time ago. I have not had a pain in my arms or shoulders in two months now. I can actually run upstairs, and I call that fine for a person of my age. I go about my housework singing for I never feel tired, or clumsy any more, and my appetite is so good I am always ready to eat at meal time. I want everybody to know what a good medicine Tanlac is."

Tanlac is sold in Janesville by McCue & Buss Drug Co., and leading druggists everywhere.

Meanwhile, Prime Minister Lloyd George went out of his way to lead the "initiative" by President Harding and British said the same thing in the French parliament, all of which was designed to remove any suspicion that the British were trying to start a world party which would do away with the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

Yet that is the cold fact. Sooner or later Japan will realize that when America projected Far Eastern questions in the conference on limitation of armaments, that act sealed the doom of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. Canada and Australia had already run up stairs like a girl now. Mrs. Rees Says She Hasn't Had A Sign of Rheumatism For Two Months.

"I am now sixty-two years of age, but the way I get around to do my housework one wouldn't think I was that old by a good many years," said Mrs. Ella Rees, 171 South Wyoming Place, Milwaukee, Wis.

"Yes, sir, I praise Tanlac to everybody, and I certainly have a good reason for it, too. For three years I suffered terribly from rheumatism in my arms and shoulders, couldn't hold to the banisters and pull myself upstairs, and my back felt just like it would break in two. My housework was something I could not go, and I did not care to eat, and all during the day I felt like lying right down and going to sleep. "I saw in the paper one day where Tanlac had relieved someone who seemed to have a case just like mine, so I started taking it, and finished my sixth bottle some time ago. I have not had a pain in my arms or shoulders in two months now. I can actually run upstairs, and I call that fine for a person of my age. I go about my housework singing for I never feel tired, or clumsy any more, and my appetite is so good I am always ready to eat at meal time. I want everybody to know what a good medicine Tanlac is."

made it impossible for the British government to keep the pace much longer.

Revives Controversy. In any event, the issuance of the call for a conference on Far Eastern questions simply revived the whole controversy which has been intermittently bothering European chancelleries for more than two decades.

ever since Secretary John Hay tried to establish the "open door" policy and ever since the Shantung dispute or the Paris conference gave China or the one hand a chance to lay her case conspicuously before the world while Japan stood off and made plans to take advantage of the disintegration of Russian unity and the Siberian debacle.

What difference does it make to you how Evans' Triple Phosphates puts good, solid, red-blooded, healthy flesh on your bones as long as it does and makes you feel 100% better at the same time?

Evans' Triple Phosphates is something new and something that really does what is claimed for it. Start to take it today with each meal, and in four days you'll know that you are growing more robust and feel stronger, or more active. Continue with the treatment faithfully for 30 days more and note with satisfaction that your nerves are growing more responsive; that your ambition does not lie but is cheerfully obedient to your wishes; that a touch of color is appearing in your cheeks and that your occupation ceases to become a task and is a pleasure. Notice that never before in your whole life have you enjoyed living as you do today. Watch yourself at the end of one month and let the scales tell the story.

All good druggists have agreed to supply this, run-down, under-developed person with the understanding that if one month's treatment doesn't give most gratifying results, your money is waiting for you. But don't take it even though it accomplishes wonders in nervous digestive troubles and a general nerve tonic, unless you really want to put on flesh and gain weight.

Coaches Warn Local High Against Overconfidence in Battle With Milton

Fear that the local high school football squad might be too cocky when they meet the Milton team on the fair grounds field here Wednesday afternoon was expressed by the coaches Wednesday. With five victories already chalked up on the home team's side, one of them is inclined to feel that they have the world in their hands.

The game starts at 2:30.

Although the original plan was to have the first and second teams of both schools play, only the regulars will clash. Milton's second team was greatly overruled by the Janesville coaches when they played at the nearby town several weeks ago.

One of the biggest crowds of the year will attend Wednesday's game. Despite the fact that Janesville has one victory over Milton, it will be a good battle.

SCORE 150 CONSIDERED LOW IN TRI-LEAGUE

Individual scores of 150 are considered the lowest that any man in the Tri-bowling league of Janesville should roll. Splits are also penalized, 10 cents being charged for each one. The league plans to send two five-man teams to the national tournament at Toledo.

Get the joy that's due you!

We print it right here that if you don't know the "feel" and the friendship of a joy's jimmy pipe—GO GET ONE! And—get some Prince Albert and bang a howdy-do on the big smoke-gong!

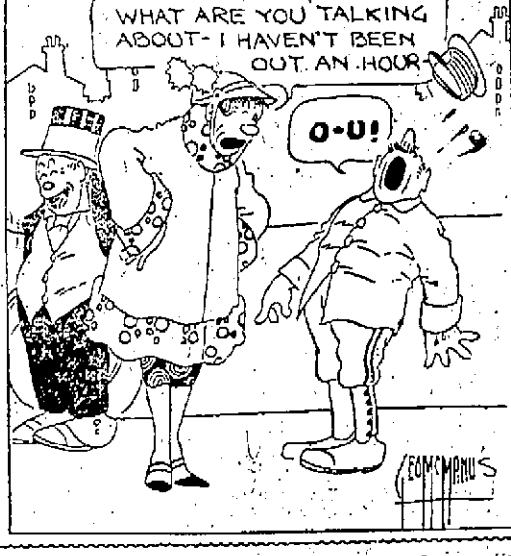

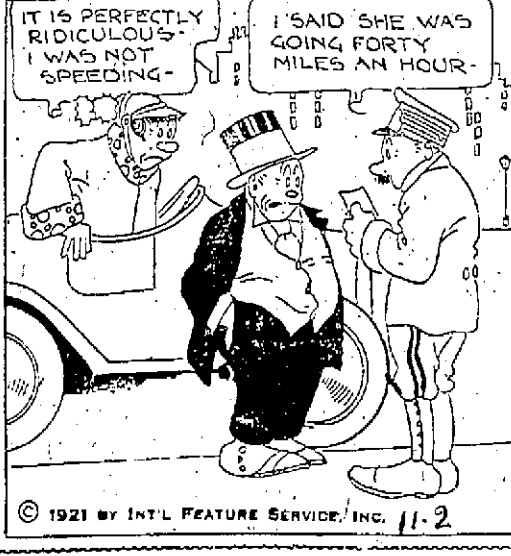

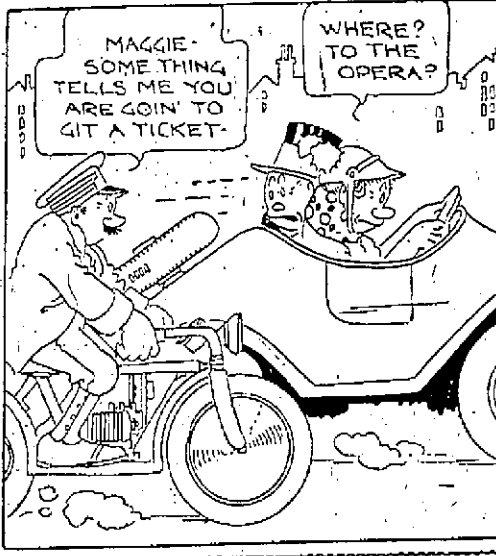

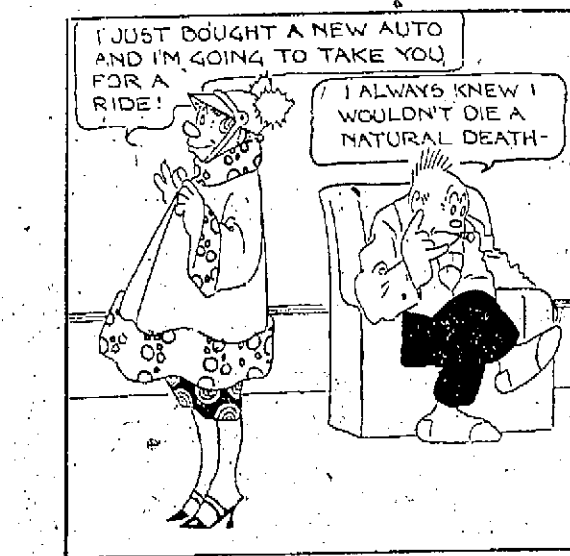

For, Prince Albert's quality—flavor—coolness—fragrance—is in a class of its own! You never tasted such tobacco! Why—figure out what it alone means to your tongue and temper when we tell you that Prince Albert can't bite, can't parch! Our exclusive patented process fixes that!

Prince Albert is a revelation in a makin's cigarette! My, but how that delightful flavor makes a dent! And, how it does answer that hankering! Prince Albert rolls easy and stays put because it is crimped cut. And, say—oh, go on and get the papers or a pipe! Do it right now!

BRINGING UP FATHER

LET'S GO! WAKE UP! BOOST HOMECOMING

"Everybody knows we are going to have a homecoming," says "Cy" Rossebo, referring to the Janesville high school football team. He writes: Sporting Editor, Gazette.

Dear Sir:

No doubt everybody knows, or will know, Janesville high school is going to have a homecoming. Janesville had a cracking good team at one time. Why can't we have another one?

Why not start again, or wake up and show that Janesville is on the map. Let's go.

Yours truly, "CY" ROSSEBO.

Janesville Will Not Join in Beloit Relay

Plans of the Beloit Y. M. C. A. to have a relay race between that city and Janesville on Thanksgiving day cannot be carried out by the local "Y" according to an announcement made Tuesday by A. B. Bergmann, athletic director. Beloit planned to station a man from each city at every quarter of a mile, making a total of 64 from each town for the entire distance.

Because of the Turkey run which will be held in Janesville on the 23rd and the local Y. M. C. A. officials decided it inadvisable to endeavor to create interest in an inter-city race. It is desired here to emphasize the Turkey run and make that a big annual event with as much success each year as attended the first holding last season.

A committee of officials will go out this week, states Mr. Bergmann, to select a course for the hill and date men. Local business men are taking considerable interest in the event, he declares, and prizes of a fine quality have been promised.

GIANTS GOOD ENOUGH SAYS MGR. MCGRAW

New York.—Manager John McGraw, well satisfied with the makeup of his world's baseball championship team, said before leaving for a southern winter vacation that he would keep the organization intact for 1922. "This team does not need any strengthening," he said.

UNPOPULAR "PROF" ON GOPHER BOARD AGAIN

Minneapolis.—Prof. James Page, faculty representative on the athletic board of control, University of Minnesota, has been re-appointed to the board. It was announced Wednesday. Prof. Page has been unpopular with the students and last winter they circulated a petition to have him removed, but without success.

Iowa Gridders See Hope of Big 10 Title

Chicago.—The University of Iowa for 20 years vainly striving for the Western Conference football championship and many times finding its team within the shadow of the championship goal, but kept from crossing through a whim of fate, this year has turned out a prodigious eleven which is conceded to have as good a chance for the title as any "Big Ten" team.

A score of years ago the wearers of Iowa's Old Gold battled their way through an undefeated season to the highest honors in middle western football. Since then, the Hawkeyes' gridiron followers have on three occasions blown their bubble of hope so full that they soared high in ecstasy only to drop when, in 1907, a missed goal lost the title to Wisconsin, in 1913 when the eleven scored more points than any team in the country but failed in important games by narrow margins, and again in 1915, when two big games were lost—one by two points and another by three. Each time Iowa was on the verge of victory.

Coached since 1916 by Howard Jones of Yale, brother of the famous T. A. D. Jones, Iowa's eleven lately cannot be pictured out by the local "Y" according to an announcement made Tuesday by A. B. Bergmann, athletic director. Beloit planned to station a man from each city at every quarter of a mile, making a total of 64 from each town for the entire distance.

ARNOLD OSS FURTHER INJURES HIS KNEE

Minneapolis.—Hope that Arnold Oss, star halfback of the University of Minnesota football team, might get into the remaining games on the Gopher's schedule this season, were abandoned Wednesday when it was learned that Oss, who was hurt in the Northwestern game, had slipped on a stairway and further injured his knee. Doctors say Oss might be permanently crippled if he attempted to play, in view of the new injury.

TRIANGULAR X-COUNTRY RACE NEXT SATURDAY

Urbana, Ill.—Coach Harry Gill has been putting his cross country team through some stiff training in preparation for the big triangular race here next Saturday against Michigan and Ohio State.

Captain Deussenberry and his team that won the "Big Ten" title last season have been covering the five mile tour around the Illinois golf course in 27 minutes flat and are in excellent condition.

FARMERS MAP OUT WINTER PROGRAM

Culver Returns from State Farm Bureau Meeting at Madison.

C. E. Culver, Rock County Farm Bureau secretary, has returned from the first general conference of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau officials held in Madison. A program of work was outlined in connection with the state and national Farm Bureau work.

The conference was devoted largely to a consideration of those fundamentals upon which the successful organization, functioning and maintenance of the Farm Bureau are primarily dependent. The committee composed of H. M. Armstrong, W. A. Foster, Walworth county and Theodore Macklin, Madison, will prepare an educational campaign on marketing which will be for the future. The Farm Bureau must organize a service organization to all farmers, not to engage in commercial cooperative marketing, but to encourage cooperative marketing associations.

Lower Freight Rates. The Farm Bureau has taken the first trench in its demand for reduced freight rates on farm products. The interstate commerce commission has handed down a decision in the grain case in which it holds the existing rates on coarse grains "will be for the future." It was recommended to the extent they should be reduced 10 percent. The order for reductions is expected not later than November 20. This decision is of vital concern to Southern Wisconsin growers.

President J. R. Howard has recently returned from Washington where he appeared before the Federal Trade Commission to consider the Farm Bureau transportation policy. The bureau officials will soon hold a conference with the railroad operators seeking reduced rates.

Live Stock Marketing.

The farmers' live stock marketing committee of 15, appointed by President J. R. Howard of the American Farm Bureau Federation, to make a thorough study of the live stock marketing situation and to devise ways and means for establishing a national cooperative live stock marketing system to increase efficiency, reduce costs, and stabilize prices for the benefit of the consuming public as well as the live stock producing farmer, has completed its report. This will be submitted to the national live stock producers' ratification conference, called to meet in the LaSalle hotel, Chicago, November 10. President George McKenrow will represent the Wisconsin Farm Bureau.

The plan of the Committee of 15 involves the setting up of a great national live stock producers' marketing centers of producers' live stock commission associations, with allied stocker-and-feeder companies; the strengthening of the local co-operations; the working out of the orderly marketing program; the establishment of a Transportation Department to co-operate with the national and state farm bureaus; the interpretation of live stock statistics for the intelligent use of the live stock producers; and cooperation with the farm bureaus in extending the market for meat.

La Crosse.—Christ Reahr, bartender in the saloon of P. J. Kelly, who claimed he was knocked senseless and robbed of $1100, was arrested Wednesday charged with the theft of the money, following the discovery of the missing sack of bills and coin buried in a coal pile back of the saloon.

ITALY IN TRIBUTE TO UNKNOWN SOLDIER

Rome.—Solemn reverence by king and peasant was paid to Italy's unknown soldier, symbol of her 500,000 dead, when the body arrived in Rome Wednesday morning and was transported on a gun carriage to the church of Santa Maria Degli Angeli. It will there lie in state until its final interment on Friday in the "altar of the country" under the Victor Emmanuel monument.

OILS ADVANCE FURTHER.

Pittsburgh.—The sixth advance of oil within the last 30 days was noted at the opening of the market here Wednesday. Pennsylvania crude advanced 50 cents to $4 a barrel, while Cabot, Somerset and Somerset Light were up 25 cents. Ragland advanced 10 cents, while Corning was unchanged.

Baltimore is $6.30. Typical rates from important Canadian shipping points to New York are: Espanola, Ont., $10.50; Grand Mere, Que., $7.60; Ironbills Falls, Ont., $3.60; Jonquiere, Que., $5.80; Ottawa, Ont., $7.50; Saint Ste. Marie, Ont., $10.50; Three Rivers, Que., $7.00.

"Maine-New York city rates are not much better than the Canadian, the Livermore Falls rate being $6.40, and Millinocket, $7.70. From Port Edwards, Wis., to New York city the rate is $11.30 per ton; to Philadelphia, $10.00, and to Baltimore, $10.70.

Publishers Suffer

"America, even with the best, fastest and most modern paper mills in the world," Mr. Kellogg declared, "cannot successfully compete with the prices of European paper made and shipped under these conditions."

It is the publishers who will suffer in the long run, for American mills cannot make paper to meet present European prices, and Europe cannot supply America's permanent needs. The normal result would be wide swings in prices which are always disadvantageous to producer and purchaser alike in any commodity where price extremes are found.

"It is better for the American user of newsprint to have a dependable source of supply at home at a price which affords a reasonable profit to the manufacturer and thus encourage greater production than to have a temporary supply from abroad at prices fixed by ruinous unfair competition, which will vanish when world conditions again approach normal."

FORD'S—MEN'S WEAR

Free All This Week

This 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent. Simply present the coupon. This test will prove a delightful revelation. It will show you the way which millions have found to whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. This offer is for one week only. It means much to you and yours. Act now.

An ideal diet would do these same things, but few people get it. So dental science now needs the tooth paste to bring these desired effects.
Pepsodent will daily bring you five great benefits which the old ways did not bring. Together they mean a new era in teeth cleaning.

Men's tobacco stains

Men who smoke stain their film-coats with tobacco. The use of Pepsodent brings them conspicuous effects.
Food stains with women make these film-coats dingy. The gleaming teeth seen everywhere now show how Pepsodent removes them.
But children need Pepsodent most. Their teeth are most subject to film and starch attacks. Very few escape them. Dentists advise that they use Pepsodent from the time the first tooth appears.

Watch teeth whiten

The results of Pepsodent are quickly seen and felt. No user can long doubt them. A book we send explains the reasons for them. A very short test will convince you that this new way is essential.
Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. Watch the other good effects.
Then you will see and feel and know that Pepsodent is necessary. You will realize that old methods were not right. And this discovery may bring life-long benefits both to you and yours. Present this coupon to the dealer named this week. Cut it out now.

Do This Tonight

Watch the quick effects—see the change in a week

Present this coupon to your dealer. He will give you a delightful ten-day test of a new teeth-cleaning method, which millions are employing.

Watch the effects, quick, pleasant and conspicuous. Watch the new luster that comes. In ten days let your mirror tell you the way to pretty teeth.

Leading dentists everywhere advise this method now. You will see and feel the reasons when you make this test.

End the dingy film.

The chief purpose is to fight film. This viscous coat, which you can feel, causes dingy teeth and also most tooth troubles.

Film clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The old ways of brushing did not end it. So film-coats night and day threaten serious damage.

Film is what discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. All these troubles have been constantly increasing. Despite the daily brushing with old methods, very few escaped them.

Now you can fight it

Dental science, after long research, has found ways to fight that film. Able authorities have proved them effective. Now leading dentists everywhere advise their daily use.

The methods are embodied in Pepsodent, the new-day, scientific tooth paste. Millions of people now use it, and the use is fast spreading the world over.

That is the dentifrice we urge you to try. Your druggist has a free tube for you. Enjoy its effects for ten days, then judge them for yourself.

Also starch and acids

Modern diet makes other things essential. And those essentials are embodied in this scientific tooth paste.

Each use of Pepsodent multiplies the salivary flow. That is Nature's great tooth-protecting agent. It multiplies the starch digesting in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise form acids.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is Nature's agent for neutralizing acids which attack the teeth.

Russian Babes Saved from Starvation

The group of lost children rescued by relief workers near Samara.

These Russian children were left by their parents in the woods near Samara, Russia, to die of starvation. American relief commission workers found the "babes in the woods" and are caring for them. This photo is one of the first to be received from the Samara district in the heart of the famine area in which hundreds of thousands are starving slowly to death.

Ranting Red Oratory in Russia Gives Way to Struggle for Food

(By Associated Press.)

Note.—The following article, giving a graphic description of the gloomy mental attitude of the hungry people of Russia, was written by a staff correspondent of The Associated Press who entered Russia with the American relief workers when the famine opened the doors of that country after they had been closed for more than three years. The writer not only visited Moscow but penetrated to the famine-stricken districts of Samara and Kazan where the first American food was distributed and whence he sent by cable stirring stories of the scenes he witnessed.

Moscow.—(By a Staff Correspondent of The Associated Press.)—Russia is a smileless land. In more than 2,000 miles of travel on Central Russian railways and rivers, The Associated Press correspondent hasn't heard a single hearty laugh. The exuberance and oratory of the first year of Bolshevism have disappeared.

Speakers no longer tell of the glories of proletarian rule from the corner curbstones. Red army soldiers no longer jeer at the bourgeois for all have settled down together to the difficult task of getting enough to eat; and persons who have not tried existence in present-day Russia have no conception of how difficult it is to satisfy the most primitive human needs there. Nearly every man and woman met on Moscow or Petrograd streets today is carrying some sort of food parcel or bargaining with food dealers on the street corners. There is practically no wood and coal is not dreamed of. Oil is the only fuel. Every family has a primus on which the hot water for tea and the simple meals are prepared.

Under the housing system most persons have only one room in which to cook, eat, sleep, and do washing. All the talk one hears on the streets is of food. There are laments everywhere that the bread allowance isn't regular and the frequent expression of fears that the famine in the Volga districts will make the bread supply of Central Russia even worse.

Potatoes at 1,000 rubles a pound are the cheapest food on the market, but 1,000 rubles is a small fortune to most of the population and it takes a lot of oil to cook potatoes.

The days of political strife are apparently over. Russians have tired of theoretical politics. The anti-Bolsheviks no longer discuss the government. Paper decrees are showered unnoticed upon Bolsheviks and non-Bolsheviks alike. They are too busy in their strife for food and clothing to worry about what is going on in the Kremlin.

All Talk of Food Streets without food shops are practically deserted in all the cities. The search for food is at once the work and the recreation of the public. Boulevards are lined with food vendors offering fruit, vegetables, bread and eggs, and the people seem far more interested in these than in the listless pedestrians and the little bands which give occasional evening concerts.

There seems to be no spirit of play left in Russia. Even the children are sad and quiet. Recently many toy shops have reopened. The Soviet government never regulated Kosh's Ark and Teddy bears, so dealers in that class of goods are unboxing their old stocks and dressing Santa Claus windows.

Few moving picture theaters are open and those are given over chiefly to government propaganda pictures. The opera season has not yet opened. Dramas are offered in several less important houses. It was only these theaters and in concert halls that the correspondent saw the only persons who seemed to relax and divorce themselves from the gloomy Moscow atmosphere.

Papers, Leines, Bulletin Moscow newspapers and the newspapers in all the leading Russian cities are little more than government bulletins. Because of the shortage of paper they are generally only one sheet, and the greater part of the space is given over to long political articles. The newspapers are pasted upon the deadwalls.

Crowds gather about them eagerly and scan the few foreign dispatches. The great majority of readers show no interest in the political leaders. Street crowds in Moscow present a strange and varied appearance. Unless the weather is sunny and warm there are very few pedestrians in the center of the city. Markets which formerly existed near Opera Place have been abolished and there are few food shops in what was formerly

ADVERTISING IS TO SELLING WHAT LATER IS TO SHAVING.

I hastened into a barber's shop the other day and asked if I could be shaved in five minutes. "Yep!" was the reply. The barber quickly applied the soap. He began lathering and lathering and kept on lathering until I felt sure I would miss my train. Still he kept on plying his soap brush. I was saying to myself, "Way doesn't quit this process and not busy with his razor?" That would have been my way of shaving myself in a hurry. When he did finally take up his razor, the job was over in a jiffy. And I caught my train.

The incident, for some reason or other, stuck in my mind. Lathering is to shaving very much the same thing as advertising is to selling. If you do enough preliminary work and word has been thoroughly prepared, then the resistance is very greatly reduced and it is possible either to shave with less trouble or to sell goods with less trouble. A good many business men are as foolish as I would have been in trying to shave myself in a hurry. They don't use enough advertising before starting to try to get results. They don't apply enough advertising lather.

Is it not so?—B. C. Forbes, in Forbes Magazine, (N. Y.).

the great shopping center. In consequence, most promenaders go to the food-lined boulevards, and the slightest threat of rain drives the crowds to shelter. Boots and clothing are too precious to be exposed unnecessarily to the weather.

Clank to Uniforms

Russia was always great on uniforms. Railway employees and other civil employees of the government wore uniforms under the old regime and still cling to the uniforms. Shabbily and out of parts of uniforms, make up the costumes of nine-tenths of the men in the streets, and the second-hand clothing stalls display practically no clothing, but uniforms.

Women have also availed themselves largely of men's uniforms in improvising costumes. Hats, coats, waists and even shoes of army knicker are seen everywhere among groups of women. Rublecoats, damask curtains, furniture covers, of large flowered cretonne, rich Persian shawls, masquerade costumes and bright-colored evening gowns have been added to street wear. Formerly, Russian women have such an independent bearing and are such individualists that they show no embarrassment whatever in wearing any clothing available in this land so badly in need of cloth.

DEBATING CLUB IS ORGANIZED AT H. S.

Revived interest in debating is promised this year with the organization of a debating club at the high school. A meeting of all interested was held Monday noon in the building and the year's program was begun with election of the following officers, to hold office until February: President, Sven Sorenson; vice president, Arthur Schulz; secretary, Marian Schaller; treasurer, Donald Whitmore; and censor, Richard M. Jones. It is planned to carry out a short program each Monday. Once a semester a banquet will be given for members and friends.

VALEDICTORIAN IS CHOSEN FOR MIDYEAR GRADUATING CLASS

Helen Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, 1411 Clark street, will be the valedictorian of the class of February, 1922, of the Janesville high school. The honor is conferred upon the member of the graduating class having the highest scholastic standing during the entire four years of high school work.

The second-honor or that of salutatorian goes to another girl member of the class, Dorothy Everman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Everman, 519 South Main street.

The class of February according to present indications will number 27. Indications are that the June class will exceed by 25, the largest class to graduate in the history of the school. At present there are 102 pupils.

Miss Lillian Madden was selected by the class to write the class poem in place of Miss Miller and Miss Dorothy Kramer to write the class history instead of Miss Everman. This is to allow the valedictorian and sal-utatorian time to prepare their own addresses.

CHURCH TO SHOW
